Check Your Back Doors, "Dasher" Is Here!

Title: Check Your Back Doors, "Dasher" Is Here!
Released by: MicroWorld
Release Date: 2005-12-20 06:17:54
Summary: Variants of Dasher worm found.

For Immediate Release:

"Dasher.D" worm is a new and highly critical threat that exploits a serious Windows vulnerability in Distributed Transaction Coordinator (DTC). This vulnerability was patched by Microsoft in October 2005. "Dasher D" backdoor worm particularly targets Windows 2000 systems. It has the potential to infect a large number of computers in a given network.

Three variants of Dasher namely Dasher.A, Dasher.B, Dasher.C have already been discovered. All of them install a software, which tries to infect other vulnerable systems. Eventually some variants of this worm start to log keystrokes and transform the computer into a remotely controlled "bot" system.

Resolution

Timely updates of MicroWorld Products will effectively protect you from this breed of threats. Please check http://www.mwti.net/virus_info/virusalertd.asp?vid=795
