ZDNetIndia's CIO Vision Series

McKesson Corp | Randy

Brought to you by

McKesson is America's oldest and largest health care services company. In this CIO Vision Series interview, Randy Spratt explains IT's critical role across the organisation.

The show will attract software makers, distributors, resellers and systems integrators. A range of products and services in software, hardware, peripherals and networking will be displayed at the event.

MicroWorld will showcase its security products eScan, MailScan, eConceal and X-Spam. "COM-IT being the last big event of this year we are all set to leverage our technological advantage in this 'eager for the most advanced in security' market place," said Anil Gupta, head - National Sales, MicroWorld.

MicroWorld will also try to use this opportunity to expand its channel and distributor network, the company said.
